Australian Bedding Stewardship Council (ABSC)

The Australian Bedding Stewardship Council (ABSC) is the administrator of the Bedding Stewardship Scheme (the Scheme). Membership of the ABSC is open to businesses and organisations that will contribute to the activities and outcomes of the Scheme.

ABSC members are committed to demonstrating leadership in the responsible and ethical management of mattresses and bedding products throughout their lifecycle and comply with the ABSC Code of Conduct.

Membership categories

The Australian Bedding Stewardship Council (ABSC) membership has three categories. The categories and fees are outlined on page 2.

Mattress Recyclers are not eligible for Supply Chain Membership. They are eligible for ABSC approval. Please refer to the Recycling page on the ABSC website.

How to Apply

1. Contact us at membership@beddingstewardship.org.au for a copy of the Scheme Guidelines and ABSC Code of Conduct.
2. An authorised officer must read and accept the Scheme Guidelines and sign the Code of Conduct.
3. Complete the Supply Chain Membership Application Form on pages 3 and 4.
4. Return the completed application form and signed copy of the ABSC Code of Conduct via email to membership@beddingstewardship.org.au
5. The ABSC team will review the application and contact the applicant if further information is required.

Membership is subject to approval by the ABSC Board. The Scheme cannot function without members and we thank you for your application.
